On November 17 Stock Exchange brokers in London must decide whether they will hargin their accounts 10 per cent or clear up their debit balances. As the London trokers were in the habit of carrying commitments from one settlement to another without margin, a 10 per cent margin at the closing figures of July 27 will, it feared, force the shipment of a good deal of stock to New York. At the same time it would clear up the situation here.

Outs were by to he lower, but the lack of cash trade was also against the price, as the transactions were only (10,99) bushels. Those in want of provisions were furnished with all they cared to absorb by the larger packers to-day. Commission-houses led in the buying. Hogs at western points were higher, and that in all probability was the cause for buying by that pection.

DAMAGE SUITS SETTLED AND DISMISSED BY COURT

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., November 9.—The suits of Mrs. Ida G. Jackson and her husband, W. W. Jackson, against the Virginia Hot Springs, which had been pending in the Federal District Court here, have been settled and dismissed. The amount secured in settlement in the two sults is not given out for publication, and is not indicated by the order dismissing the actions. The plaintiffs, who are residents of Shippinsburg, Pa., claimed they were denied accommodation at the Hot Springs Hotel about two years ago, and they sued for $25,000 each in separate proceedings.
